

Chinmaya Mission Vancouver presents:
"Gita in Daily Life" for children

Hari Om everyone,

Have you ever wished you could teach your children more about the Bhagavad Gita?
Have you wondered how they might be able to use the teachings in the Gita in their daily lives?
If you have, here is your chance to do something about it!

Chinmaya Mission Vancouver is hosting a Bal Vihar Camp on "Gita in Daily Life" just for children.

The camp will be led by Acharya Vivek, a young and dynamic teacher who makes this ancient wisdom relevant, relatable and reachable to all, especially children and young adults.

This is the third in a series of camps organised by Chinmaya Mission in Vancouver. The attendees from the earlier camps had a wonderful time meeting new friends, learning new things, playing games and just having fun. We expect to have a camp experience that is just as lively and interactive this year as well.

The camp will be held for 3 days during the Victoria Day weekend this year.

Dates: Saturday, May 18th to Monday, May 20th, 2013.

Times: 9.30 a.m. – 3 p.m. (on Saturday, Sunday and Monday)

Location: St. Michael's Anglican Church, 12996 60 Ave. Surrey, British Columbia, Canada, V3X 2L5

Lunch and healthy snacks are included. Registration is required.

Admission: $100/family for members. $150/family for non-members. No restrictions on the number of siblings.

Acharya Vivekji will also hold satsangs with adults at the same location from 7.30 p.m. – 9 p.m. on the following topic:
Sambandha: Freedom through Relationships (studying 20 values from Srimad Bhagavad Gita's Chapter 13)

No registration is required for the adult gatherings.
